MSC WELCOMES BACK ONE OF THE NAVY'S FINEST!

Kevin Yusman has returned to our firm after serving a year of active duty with the United States Navy. Kevin is a Lieutenant Commander with the Judge Advocate General's Corps. He was recalled to active duty to serve as the Legal Advisor to the Department of Defense Criminal Investigation Task Force - Afghanistan. He also served as the Officer in Charge of the command's detachment with the Department of Defense Security Classification/Declassification Review Team in Washington, D.C. All of us at Mahoney, Silverman & Cross, LLC are delighted with his safe return to our firm.

While deployed for over 7 months, Kevin's work focused on the investigation of suspected high level terrorists, insurgents, and corrupt officials operating within Afghanistan. He was also involved in the expansion of the Rule of Law mission and served as the first Officer in Charge of the newly created investigations office for detention operations. As the legal advisor, Kevin provided sound and timely legal advice on the sufficiency of evidence in the arrest, detention, and prosecution of terrorists. While in Washington D.C., he was responsible for supporting the Department of Justice in responding to more than 200 habeas corpus petitions filed by Guantanamo detainees in the U.S. District Court. For his service and accomplishments, Kevin was awarded the Defense Meritorious Service Medal.

Kevin is a member of our firm's civil litigation practice group with an emphasis in business and personal injury litigation. He has tried over 20 jury cases to verdict and multiple appeals. Kevin graduated from the University of Kansas in 1995 where he was a member of the University racquetball team and a red-shirted place kicker for the Jayhawk's football team. After earning his J.D. and graduating cum laude from Southern Methodist University in 1998, Kevin was commissioned an officer in the United States Navy, Judge Advocate's General Corps and served on active duty from 1998 until 2004. He served as both defense counsel and prosecutor during his term. From 2001 until 2004, Kevin was the Senior Trial Counsel for Navy forces for Europe and Southwest Asia. Kevin joined our firm in 2005. Join us in welcoming Kevin back by contacting him at kyusman@msclawfirm.com.
